

Competence assessment plan

The practitioner must submit this plan to Ahpra for approval within the timeframes of the conditions and prior to commencement of the competence assessment.

When is a plan required?

This plan is for nurses and midwives registered under the Trans-Tasman Mutual Recognition (TTMR) with conditions on their registration requiring completion of a competence assessment. The competence assessment must be in accordance with the competence assessment plan submitted by the practitioner in consultation with the nominated assessor and approved by the National Board.

A new plan may also be required when there is a change in the nominated assessor, practice or employment location.

Who completes the plan?

The practitioner completes the plan in consultation with the nominated assessor.

Approval of the plan

The practitioner submits the completed plan to the Board via Ahpra for consideration and approval. If changes are needed to the plan, feedback will be provided to the practitioner and nominated assessor.

Definitions
