Hi this veer pal I want state that it's very hard to get b grade in one attempt every time one or two moulde left behinds and oet test is very expensive too moreover I have to go Sydney Forrest there is noting in Canberra . I would recommended that make easy registration please nd trying to put India to in list of countries. There are many qualified nurse just working around another field just bcz of hard thing to get registration here. Even I Hv done I year post graduate in New Zealand but still struggling with b grade .i got b in writing and speaking. Last clear listening it very painfull when u spend ur. Salary on test nd u got nothing. Thank
