Meetings of national and state boards and committees in 2014/15

The table below details the number of National Board, national committee, state board and state committee meetings held during 2014/15. Each Board has different committee structures to support their day-to-day regulatory decision-making and policy work, largely determined by both the volume and risk profile of the tasks (see National Boards structure table). The purpose of committees varies, and includes both decision-making about individual practitioners (e.g. registration, notifications, immediate action, compliance matters) and policy-oriented committees looking at standards, codes and guidelines for the profession. All of the meetings listed below as either state board or state committee, along with the majority of national committee meetings, would have been engaged in regulatory decision-making affecting individual practitioners.
