Dear Paul

Thank you for the opportunity to provide feedback to the consultation on the proposed revised capabilities for registered paramedics.

The Paramedicine Council of NSW ('Council') provided feedback to the confidential preliminary consultation in October 2019.

The Council have noted the revised capabilities for registered paramedics as part of the current public consultation and consideration was given to the consultation questions in the feedback template. The Council supports the capabilities document and have no further comment to make.

The Council acknowledges and supports the Paramedicine Board of Australia's work in developing standards, codes and guidelines for the paramedic profession.

Please do not hesitate to contact me at [REDACTED] if you have any questions.

Yours sincerely

Alan Morrison

President
Paramedicine Council of New South Wales
