CONTINUING PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT (CPD)

A registered pharmacist must undertake the continuing professional development (CPD) required by the Board's Registration standard: Continuing professional development. Failure to do so may constitute behaviour for which health, conduct or performance action may be taken.

Registered pharmacists are required to plan and complete CPD activities relevant to their scope of practice that have an aggregate value of 40 or more CPD credits for the 12 month period ending 30 September.

For more information, view the full registration standard online at www.pharmacyboard.gov.au/Registration-Standards

CRIMINAL HISTORY

Criminal history includes the following, whether in Australia or overseas, at any time:

- every conviction of a person for an offence
- every plea of guilty or finding of guilt by a court of the person for an offence, whether or not a conviction is recorded for the offence, and
- every charge made against the person for an offence.

Under the National Law, spent convictions legislation does not apply to criminal history disclosure requirements. Therefore, you must disclose your complete criminal history as detailed above, irrespective of the time that has lapsed since the charge was laid or the finding of guilt was made. The Board will decide whether your criminal history is relevant to the practice of your profession. You are not required to obtain or provide your Australian criminal history report, Ahpra will obtain this check on your behalf. But if you have not given us certified proof of identity documents since October 2019, you will need to do this first.

Any document containing a photograph must be annotated with the statement 'I certify that this a true copy of the original and the photograph is a true likeness of the person presenting the document as sighted by me.'

You may be required to obtain international criminal history reports.

For more information, view the full registration standard online at www.pharmacyboard.gov.au/Registration-Standards and the requirements for supplying proof of identity and certified documents at www.ahpra.gov.au/Registration/Registration-Process/Proof-of-Identity and www.ahpra.gov.au/Registration/Registration-Process/Certifying-Documents

IMPAIRMENT

The National Law defines impairment as 'a physical or mental impairment, disability, condition or disorder (including substance abuse or dependence) that detrimentally affects or is likely to detrimentally affect your capacity to practise the profession'.

An illness or health condition that is safely managed is not the same as impairment, as these do not have a detrimental impact on your capacity to practise. Examples you do not need to tell us about include:

- wearing prescription glasses to correct your vision or hearing aids to correct your hearing, or
- seeing a psychologist for anxiety and following a treatment plan.

The National Law requires you to declare any such impairments at the time of renewal, including details of the impairment and how it is managed.

PRACTICE

Practice means any role, whether remunerated or not, in which the individual uses their skills and knowledge as a pharmacist in their profession. For the purposes of this registration standard, practice is not restricted to the provision of direct clinical care. It also includes working in a direct non-clinical relationship with clients; working in management, administration, education, research, advisory, regulatory or policy development roles; and any other roles that impact on safe, effective delivery of services in the profession.

PROFESSIONAL INDEMNITY INSURANCE (PII)

You cannot practise as pharmacist in Australia unless you are covered by your own, or third-party professional indemnity insurance (PII) arrangements that meet the requirements of the Board's registration standard.

Remember, practising means using your skills and knowledge as a health practitioner in any paid or unpaid role in your profession.

Initial registration and annual renewal of registration requires a declaration that you will be covered for all aspects of your practice. You may be covered by your Australian employer's PII - you will need to confirm this with your employer.

A policy must include an approved level of cover of not less than $20 million for any single claim (i.e. for each claim), or for all claims in the aggregate, that may be made against the pharmacist. When you decide to cease practice, you must take out appropriate run-off cover for matters that would otherwise be uncovered arising from previous practice as a registered pharmacist.

For more information, view the full registration standard online at www.pharmacyboard.gov.au/Registration-Standards

Obligations of registered health practitioners

The National Law pt 7 div 11 sub-div 3 establishes the legislative obligations of registered health practitioners. A contravention of these obligations, as detailed at points 1, 2, 4, 5, 6 or 8 below does not constitute an offence but may constitute behaviour for which health, conduct or performance action may be taken by the Board. Registered health practitioners are also obligated to meet the requirements of their Board as established in registration standards, codes of conduct and policies.

 - (i) the name of the practitioner's employer; and

You may contact Ahpra on 1300 419 495

You need to tell us about any changes to your criminal history in Australia since your last declaration with Ahpra that you haven't already told us about. This will usually be when you applied for registration if you have registered recently or when you last renewed your registration.

The definition of criminal history in the National Scheme is very wide. Before completing this section, read the National Board's registration standard to understand what we mean by criminal history. You can access this information from www.ahpra.gov.au/Registration/Renewal.

3. We need some more information from you so we can assess your application. This may include conducting an Australian criminal history check. In the text box below tell us:

- the date
- where it happened, including the state or territory
- any ongoing action, and/or
- what the outcome was.

You can also provide a detailed statement and other supporting material (e.g. court documents) in the document to support your application. You need to do this by the renewal due date to avoid late fees.

4. Have you provided identity documents to Ahpra to verify your identity?

As part of our assessment, we need to complete a criminal history check. Before we can complete this check we need to verify your identity. We'll send you an email after you submit your application to explain what you need to do. An incomplete identity verification may delay processing and could result in your application for registration being withdrawn.

- Yes
- No – You will be asked to complete your identity verification through Ahpra's third party vendor, InstaID+. For further information, please refer to the Proof of identity requirements available at www.ahpra.gov.au/identity
