

Financial hardship for payment of registration fees

Part 7 Division 6 of the Health Practitioner Regulation National Law (the National Law)

You must submit this form and receive the outcome before you submit your application for registration or renewal. Refer to your Board's website for registration renewal dates for processing www.ahpra.gov.au.

This form is for individuals who:

- have not yet submitted either an application for registration or renewal of your registration, and
- are applying for consideration of financial hardship to assist in meeting the cost of the associated registration fee or prioritisation of application assessment.

The financial hardship policy is not available to those:

- applying or transitioning to non-practising registration
- recent graduates applying for registration in the Chinese Medicine, Nursing or Midwifery professions.

Eligibility criteria

To be eligible, you must be experiencing financial hardship as defined in this form. Complete this form and return to Ahpra before submitting an application for registration or at least 15 days before your registration expiry date.

If you have already submitted your application, then you are not eligible to use this form.

Financial hardship in the context of the National Scheme means you are unable to provide the following for yourself, your family, or other dependents:

- food
- accommodation
- clothing
- medical treatment
- education, and/or
- other basic necessities.

This can be as a result of an unexpected event or unforeseen changes outside your control.

Privacy and confidentiality

The Board and Ahpra are committed to protecting your personal information in accordance with the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth). The ways the Board and Ahpra may collect, use and disclose your information are set out in the collection statement relevant to this application, available at www.ahpra.gov.au/privacy.

By signing this form, you confirm that you have read the collection statement. Ahpra's privacy policy explains how you may access and seek correction of your personal information held by Ahpra and the Board, how to complain to Ahpra about a breach of your privacy and how your complaint will be dealt with. This policy can be accessed at www.ahpra.gov.au/privacy.

SECTION D: Acknowledgement

Before you move to the next section, make sure that you have answered all of the relevant questions correctly and read the statements below. An incomplete form may delay processing and could result in your application for financial hardship not being decided prior to the cut-off timeframe.

I acknowledge that I:

- have read the contents of this form
- have completed the Financial hardship self-assessment section of this form
- have selected which option I would like if this application is approved
- have not submitted an application for registration or renewal for the relevant profession
- understand failure to complete all relevant sections of this application and to enclose all supporting documentation may result in this application not being accepted, and
- understand Ahpra uses overseas cloud service providers to hold, process and maintain personal information where this is reasonably necessary to enable Ahpra to perform its functions under the National Law. These providers include Salesforce, whose operations are located in Japan and the United States of America.

I understand that if my application for financial hardship is approved that (select one):

- I must pay 50% of the required registration fee and application fee if applicable, OR
- I must pay the registration fee in two instalments and I will be required to pay the second instalment within the due time frame, OR
- If I choose to have my application prioritised for assessment, that this only applies if my application requires further assessment by Ahpra and timing of a decision is still subject to the requirements of that assessment.

I confirm that I have read the privacy and confidentiality statement for this form.

I declare that:

- the above statements, and the documents provided in support of this application, are true and correct, and
- I am the person named in this application and in the attached documents provided.
