Step 3

You must ensure the Authorised Officer certifies your documents in line with Ahpra's requirements.

See page 3 of this document for instructions and examples.

The Authorised Officer will:

- check your copy is the same as the original
- compare your face against the photograph on any identity document to confirm that you are the person pictured, and
- certify the copy of your documents with a photo and documents without a photo, as outlined on page 3 of this document.

Incorrectly certified documents will not be accepted and will cause delays.

Instructions for Authorised Officer

Step 1

Inspect the original document to ensure that it is an original document.

Check the copy provided to you is the same as the original document.

If the document contains a photograph (e.g. passport, driver's licence) compare the person's face presenting the document against the photograph to confirm that the person presenting the document is the person pictured.

Documents with a photo

On documents with a photograph, sign, date the copy and write or stamp: 'I certify that this is a true copy of the original and the photograph is a true likeness of the person presenting the document as sighted by me.'

I certify that this is a true copy of the original and the photograph is a true likeness of the person presenting the document as sighted by me.

Name, date, contact phone number, occupation/profession and profession number (if applicable).

Correct wording – refers to the document and to the person presenting the document

I have sighted the original document and certify this to be a true copy of the original.

Name, date, contact phone number, occupation/profession and profession number (if applicable).

Incorrect wording – refers to the document only, it must also refer to the person

Note: Australian consular officers or Australian diplomatic officers can use their standard certification statement and must provide the Identity Certificate when certifying the documents.

Documents without a photo

On a single-page document, sign, date the copy and write or stamp:

'I have sighted the original document and certify this to be a true copy of the original.'

On documents with more than one page, e.g. a tenancy agreement, initial every page, number all pages (i.e. page 2 of 5 etc) and write or stamp the following on the first page: 'I have sighted the original document and certify this to be a true copy of the original.'

I have sighted the original document and certify this to be a true copy of the original.

Name, date, contact phone number, occupation or profession and profession number (if applicable).

Correct wording – refers to the document

All documents

The certification statement must be on each document. Where both the front and back of a document are required, as outlined in the Proof of identity requirements document, the certification statement must be provided for both sides of the document.

You must also write or stamp on the copy:

- your signature
- your full name
- your occupation or profession (including your occupation or profession number, if relevant)
- your stamp or seal (if relevant)
- your phone number, and
- the date.
