Information and definitions

The Board's Registration Standards define the requirements that applicants and registrants need to meet to be registered; these can be found online at www.dentalboard.gov.au/Registration-Standards

The Board's Policies, Codes, Guidelines and FAQ can be found online at www.dentalboard.gov.au/Codes-Guidelines

Before renewing registration dental practitioners must read the following information and ensure that they understand their obligations as registered practitioners.

AUSTRALIAN NATIONAL GUIDELINES FOR THE MANAGEMENT OF HEALTHCARE WORKERS LIVING WITH BLOOD BORNE VIRUSES AND HEALTHCARE WORKERS WHO PERFORM EXPOSURE PRONE PROCEDURES AT RISK OF EXPOSURE TO BLOOD BORNE VIRUSES

The Communicable Diseases Network Australia (CDNA) has published these guidelines. The following is a summary of the requirements in the CDNA guidelines:

Healthcare workers who perform exposure prone procedures (EPPs) must take reasonable steps to know their blood-borne virus (BBV) status and should be tested for BBVs at least once every three years. They are also expected to:

- have appropriate and timely testing and follow up care after a potential occupational exposure associated with a risk of BBV acquisition
- have appropriate testing and follow up care after potential non-occupational exposure, with testing frequency related to risk factors for virus acquisition
- cease performing all EPPs if diagnosed with a BBV until the criteria in the guidelines are met, and
- confirm that they comply with these guidelines when applying for renewal of registration if requested by their board.

Practitioners who are living with a blood-borne virus and who perform exposure-prone procedures have additional requirements. They are expected to:

- be under the ongoing care of a treating doctor with relevant expertise
- comply with prescribed treatment
- have ongoing viral load monitoring at the appointed times
- not perform EPPs if particular viral load or viral clearance criteria are not met (see detailed information in the guidelines according to the specific BBV)
- seek advice regarding any change in health condition that may affect their fitness to practise or impair their health
- release monitoring information to the treating doctor
- if required, release de-identified information to the relevant area of the jurisdictional health department/Expert Advisory Committee, and
- if required, release health monitoring information to a designated person in their workplace in the event of a potential exposure incident to assess the requirement for further public health action.

Additional information can be found in the CDNA Australian National Guidelines for the Management of Healthcare Workers Living with Blood Borne Viruses and Healthcare Workers Who Perform Exposure Prone Procedures at Risk of Exposure to Blood Borne Viruses available online at <https://www.health.gov.au/resources/collections/cdna-national-guidelines-for-healthcare-workers-on-managing-bloodborne-viruses?language=en>

CERTIFYING DOCUMENTS

CONTINUING PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT (CPD)

Practitioners must meet the minimum requirements set out in the Board's continuing professional development (CPD) registration standard.

Practitioners must complete a minimum of 60 hours of CPD activities over a three-year CPD cycle:

- a minimum of 48 of the 60 hours (80 per cent) must be spent on clinically or scientifically-based activities, and
- a maximum of 12 of the 60 hours (20 per cent) can be spent on non-scientific activities.

Each three-year CPD cycle covers three registration periods from 1 December to 30 November.

The Board encourages practitioners to engage in CPD activities each year, gradually accumulating a minimum of 60 hours over the three-year CPD cycle.

For more information, view the full registration standard online at www.dentalboard.gov.au/Registration-Standards

CRIMINAL HISTORY

Criminal history includes the following, whether in Australia or overseas, at any time:

- every conviction of a person for an offence
- every plea of guilty or finding of guilt by a court of the person for an offence, whether or not a conviction is recorded for the offence
- every charge made against the person for an offence.

Under the National Law, spent convictions legislation does not apply to criminal history disclosure requirements. Therefore, you must disclose your complete criminal history as detailed above, irrespective of the time that has lapsed since the charge was laid or the finding of guilt was made. The Board will decide whether your criminal history is relevant to the practice of your profession. You are not required to obtain or provide your Australian criminal history report, Ahpra will obtain this check on your behalf. But if you have not given us certified proof of identity documents since October 2019, you will need to do this first.

Any document containing a photograph must be annotated with the statement 'I certify that this a true copy of the original and the photograph is a true likeness of the person presenting the document as sighted by me.'

You may be required to obtain international criminal history reports.

For more information, view the full registration standard online at

and the requirements for supplying proof of identity and certified documents at www.ahpra.gov.au/Registration/Registration-Process/Proof-of-Identity and www.ahpra.gov.au/Registration/Registration-Process/Certifying-Documents

IMPAIRMENT

The National Law defines impairment as 'a physical or mental impairment, disability, condition or disorder (including substance abuse or dependence) that detrimentally affects or is likely to detrimentally affect your capacity to practise the profession'.

An illness or health condition that is safely managed is not the same as impairment, as these do not have a detrimental impact on your capacity to practise. Examples you do not need to tell us about include:

- wearing prescription glasses to correct your vision or hearing aids to correct your hearing, or
- seeing a psychologist for anxiety and following a treatment plan.

The National Law requires you to declare any such impairments at the time of renewal, including details of the impairment and how it is managed.

PRACTICE

Practice means any role, whether remunerated or not, in which you use your skills and knowledge as a health practitioner in your profession. Practice in this context is not restricted to the provision of direct clinical care. It also includes using professional knowledge (working) in a direct non-clinical relationship with clients, working in management, administration, education, research, advisory, regulatory or policy development roles and any other roles that impact on safe, effective delivery of services in the profession.

PROFESSIONAL INDEMNITY INSURANCE (PII)

You cannot practise as a dental practitioner in Australia unless you are covered by your own, or third-party professional indemnity insurance (PII) arrangements that meet the requirements of the Board's registration standard.

Remember, practising means using your skills and knowledge as a health practitioner in any paid or unpaid role in your profession.

For more information, view the full registration standard online at

www.dentalboard.gov.au/Registration-Standards

REGENCY OF PRACTICE

To ensure that you are able to practise competently and safely, you must have recent practice in dentistry and in any field of practice (including specialist, endorsement or division of the register), in which you intend to work during the period of registration for which you are applying.

If in the previous five years you have not practised in dentistry or the field of practice in which you intend to work during the period of registration, you will need to satisfy the Board's recency of practice requirements.

For more information, view the full registration standard online at www.dentalboard.gov.au/Registration-Standards

SECTION B: Mandatory – Annual statement

In accordance with section 109 of the National Law, the following questions must be answered for Ahpra to assess your renewal. It is important that you refer to the Board's registration standards when completing this form. This information can be found at www.dentalboard.gov.au/Registration-Standards

Audits of these annual statements will be conducted by the Board to verify compliance with the registration standards. These standards provide information on the evidence the Board expects registrants to maintain for the purposes of the audit.

Preceding period of registration refers to the period of time between the first and last day of your current registration.

B1. Do you perform exposure prone procedures in your practice?

Exposure prone procedures (EPPs) are procedures where there is a risk of injury to the healthcare worker resulting in exposure of the patient's open tissues to the blood of the healthcare worker. These procedures include those where the healthcare worker's hands (whether gloved or not) may be in contact with sharp instruments, needle tips or sharp tissues (spicules of bone or teeth) inside a patient's open body cavity, wound or confined anatomical space where the hands or fingertips may not be completely visible at all times.

The CDNA has developed guidance on exposure-prone procedures in Guidance on classification of exposure prone and non-exposure prone procedures in Australia 2017 available online at <https://www.health.gov.au/resources/collections/cdna-national-guidelines-for-healthcare-workers-on-managing-bloodborne-viruses?language=en>

Most dental practitioners working in clinical practice will perform EPPs.

You can seek additional information about whether you perform exposure-prone procedures from your relevant organisation in Appendix 2 of the CDNA National Guidelines – Healthcare Workers Living with Blood Borne Viruses / Perform Exposure Prone Procedures at Risk of Exposure to Blood Borne Viruses available online at <https://www.health.gov.au/resources/collections/cdna-national-guidelines-for-healthcare-workers-on-managing-bloodborne-viruses?language=en>.

You need to tell us about any changes to your criminal history in Australia since your last declaration with Ahpra that you haven't already told us about. This will usually be when you applied for registration if you have registered recently or when you last renewed your registration.

The definition of criminal history in the National Scheme is very wide. Before completing this section, read the National Board's registration standard to understand what we mean by criminal history. You can access this information from www.ahpra.gov.au/Registration/Renewal.

1. Since your last declaration to Ahpra, has there been any change to your criminal history in Australia that you have not declared to Ahpra?

- Yes – Go to the next question
- No – You must tell us within 7 days if at any time during the upcoming registration period in Australia or another country you are:
- charged with an offence punishable by 12 months imprisonment or more, and/or
 - convicted of or the subject of a finding of guilt for an offence punishable by imprisonment.
- To tell us, complete the Raise a concern form on our website. You can find information about how to complete the form on the Notice of certain events webpage. – Go to question 4

2. Was the change(s) related to any of these?

For more information, see Criminal history in the Information and definitions section of this form.

3. We need some more information from you so we can assess your application. This may include conducting an Australian criminal history check. In the text box below tell us:

- the date
- where it happened, including the state or territory
- any ongoing action, and/or
- what the outcome was.

You can also provide a detailed statement and other supporting material (e.g. court documents) in the document to support your application. You need to do this by the renewal due date to avoid late fees.

4. Have you provided identity documents to Ahpra to verify your identity?

As part of our assessment, we need to complete a criminal history check. Before we can complete this check we need to verify your identity. We'll send you an email after you submit your application to explain what you need to do. An incomplete identity verification may delay processing and could result in your application for registration being withdrawn.

- Yes
- No – You will be asked to complete your identity verification through Ahpra's third party vendor, InstaID+. For further information, please refer to the Proof of identity requirements available at www.ahpra.gov.au/identity

Identity verification

You are required to verify your identity.

To complete your identity check, once your application is received by Ahpra, you will be sent a link with instructions. The link will take you to our third party vendor InstaID+ website.

- You will be asked to take a selfie photo of your face with your photo ID and take photos of your identity documents. This will include any change of name evidence if you have changed your name.
